

MEG BARTON

Client Servicing Administrator

Meg Barton graduated from the University of Delaware in 2020 with a BA in Linguistics, concentrating on logical structures in language and the mathematical and computational modeling of dialect phonology. She holds Series 7 and Series 63 FINRA licenses and was previously employed in the Private Bank at JP Morgan. In her spare time, Meg is an actor involved with several local community theatre groups, makes digital art and unnecessarily elaborate baked goods, and writes short stories, plays, and poetry. Meg joined The Stanley-Laman Group in the summer of 2024.
