

GARY SOURA, MBA, CFA

Senior Portfolio Manager

Gary joined the Stanley-Laman Group in 2016 as a Portfolio Manager. Gary is a CFA Charterholder and he earned an MBA in Finance from St. Joseph's University. He also holds a BS in Finance from Pennsylvania State University.

Prior to joining Stanley-Laman, Gary spent 20 years as a Sr. Equity Analyst at Schneider Capital Management, an institutional money manager serving separate accounts and mutual funds. He was a Senior Vice President and founding partner of the firm, with peak assets of $6B. While at Schneider, he performed in depth research on companies across an array of market sectors and all market caps. Over the years, he was actively involved in many facets of the company, including stock analysis, cash flow management, trading and was the firm's broker liaison. He has developed deep industry contacts and relationships over his numerous years in the investment industry. Before Schneider Capital, Gary spent several years as a research associate at Wellington Management Company.