

J. MICHAEL SHEA, J.D., Ph.D.

Attorney

Michael is an attorney with diversified legal service background in maritime, personal injury – thirteen years as a member of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, with many Coast Guard Qualifications, including certified Incident Command Instructor - Served as marine investigator for the Coast Guard and Acting Department Head for the Response Department, Marine Safety Office Tampa. Twice summer hire for the USCG MSO Tampa. Capt. Shea has testified as an expert witness in maritime matters in both state and federal courts. Captain Shea has been instructor at Everest University, the former Florida Metropolitan University for eleven years - He is the founder and Managing Director of St. Michael's Legal Center, Inc., a not-for-profit pro bona legal center dedicated to helping parents with family law issues when the payment of an attorney is out of their reach. Michael is admitted to practice law in Florida.