

BRENT MEYER

Marketing Associate

Brent serves as a financial advisor, working with ultra-high net worth business owners and families.

Previously, Brent founded and operated a commercial painting business for over 20 years. Beginning as a one-person operation Brent aggressively expanded the company's reach from the Philadelphia suburbs to Southeastern PA, DE, and NJ providing various services to the region's top construction companies, national multi-family housing companies and major franchise developers.

Mr. Meyer earned a B.A. in Communications from the University of Lynchburg where he was a Founding Father of the school's first nationally recognized fraternity as well as Senior Class Treasurer. Brent was also a member of the lacrosse team where he earned Rookie of the Year and All-Conference honors and finished his career as Lynchburg's All-Time Assist Leader.

Outside of work, Brent enjoys spending all his free time with his wife, Susan, and two sons and two daughters. Brent has spent years coaching local sports and is currently a coach for a premier youth lacrosse club.
