

BRENT MEYER

Marketing Associate

Brent serves as a financial advisor, working with ultra-high net worth business owners and families.

Prior to joining the Stanley-Laman Group, Brent was an independent insurance broker, helping families protect their assets.

Previously, Brent founded and, for over 20 years, operated a commercial painting business that expanded its reach from the Philadelphia region to Southeastern PA, DE, and NJ, providing painting and assorted services for the new construction of Senior Living Facilities, Restaurants, and Academic Buildings, and for the restoration of Multi-Family Property campuses, Hotels, and Churches.

Mr. Meyer earned a B.A. in Communications from the University of Lynchburg, where he was an All-Conference lacrosse player and held the record for career assists at the conclusion of his playing career.

Outside of work, Brent enjoys spending all of his free time with his wife, Susan, and two sons and two daughters. He has spent years coaching travel lacrosse and his children's local sports teams. He also enjoys art, playing drums, and attending concerts.
