

JACK JIANG, J.D.

Tax Attorney

Jack attended the University of Pittsburgh, graduating in 2013 with a degree in biological sciences. After graduating college, he first engaged in a brief medical research career, where he was a contributing author in more than twenty academic journals. Jack then went on to enroll at Drexel University Thomas R. Kline School of Law, obtaining his J.D. in 2020. After law school, Jack served a year-long clerkship for the Honorable John W. Herron in the First Judicial District Court of Common Pleas Orphans' Court Division from 2020-2021. Jack is admitted to practice law in Pennsylvania.

In the fall of 2021, Jack joined the Stanley Laman Group, Ltd. and works as an attorney for Laman Law, LLC.